POLITICS IN CANADA

EXPLAINED BY PROF. GOLDWIN SMITH IN A LETTER.

Liberals, Men of the Continent, Conservatives Desire to Keep Canada Separated from Continental Tendencies—The People Will Not Be Let Alone.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Professor Goldwin Smith, of Toronto, in a letter to the Times, explains the political situation in Canada. He says: "The immediate issue is that of trade with the United States, but beneath this lies the broader issue between the continental and anti-continental policy. The Liberals of Canada, whether they look for an intimate entrance of Canada in the American union or not, are now men of this continent and regard the inhabitants of the rest of it as partners, and desire to cultivate the closest relations with them. The Conservatives are anti-continental. They desire to keep Canada in all things divided from her continental tendencies and attached to Great Britain, where the social centre of their party lies. Practically, they seek to make Canada an engine of the Conservative aristocracy of Great Britain for averting the triumph of the democracy of the new world and keeping part of the American continent under aristocratic institutions, or the influence of the anti-continental party. Sir John Macdonald is the chief. His whole policy has been directed against closer relations with the United States. The Canadian Pacific Railway was his destined instrument through the course of events by which his "National" railway has been converted into half an American road, seems to prove the helpless fight against nature. For the commercial question by itself he may be said to compare comparatively little. Among the people, whatever may be their political bearing toward the United States, the desire for free trade with their own continent grows apace. If the people are let alone there can be no doubt the verdict will be in favor of reciprocity and against the protectionist government. But the people will not be let alone. The country has been governed for twenty-five years largely by corruption carried on by means of federal subsidies to the provinces, which our constitution unfortunately permits, federal grants to local public works, concessions to contractors and bribery of all kinds. These engines will all be plied on the people whose political tone has been sadly lowered by the long subjection to their influence. The government's majority in the late Parliament was over 50 on a division in a House of 215 members, so that the Liberals have considerable leeway to make up. On the other hand many government seats were won at the last election by small majorities which shows that if the people were to vote freely according to their convictions the commercial question would no doubt be reversed.

Important Decision.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—The Times, Wakeeny, Kansas, special says: Judge Osborne, of the 23rd judicial district, has rendered a decision which will affect nearly every mortgage claim in western Kansas, and if sustained by the supreme court will make thousands of dollars for eastern investors. He has decided that a mortgage given by a settler on a United States claim before filing final papers is valid. Heretofore it has been thought that such mortgage was not valid, and when settlers mortgaged their claims to get money, they could not be held for the mortgage so given and judge Osborne decides that a mortgage is a lien on the place if given by one who is about to become and does become the unqualified owner. Thousands of loans have been negotiated through the East on this basis, and a great cry was raised some months ago by the noted Sam Wood, that no farmer need pay his mortgage given. The rate at which Western mortgages are being foreclosed is causing much anxiety.

Held Up a Train.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Feb. 9.—On Friday evening train 17, in charge of Conductor Morris, left Allila at 7:50 o'clock. After going a mile Engineer Thorne and Fireman Radcliffe were confronted with pistols held by two masked men, who climbed over the coal. They ordered them to stop the train, which was done immediately. The brakemen ran forward to see what the trouble was. He, too, was ordered to throw up his hands, which he did. Express Messenger Haswell, apprehending trouble, put out all his lights and lay down on the bottom of the car. He was asked to open the car by the men. He answered with "shoot," and a regular fusilade followed, resulting probably in the fatal wounding of Fireman Radcliffe. The robbers disappeared and the wounded fireman was taken to a hotel in Delano. There were probably four or more robbers, and they acted like green hands. Messenger Haswell has a slight wound on the forehead, but was able to resume his run. The train was delayed one hour.

Must Put Up With It.

DUBLIN, Feb. 9.—The Freeman's Journal says that while the Boulogne conferences are productive of a hopeful feeling, they are so far without a final result. The unsettled questions, however, do not refer to the retirement of Parnell or to the Liberal demands that his retirement shall be permanent. According to the Journal, Parnell meant what he said in committee room No. 15 of the House of Commons, that he would retire from the leadership on securing certain assurances. Concluding its article the paper says if the retirement is not real enough to satisfy the English Liberal press, they must put up with it.

Heavy Storms.

OMAHA, Feb. 9.—The storm that began Saturday night west of the Black hills, and swept southeast, ranged for 24 hours and did not cease in southern Nebraska until this morning. Overland trains that are held between Sidney and Cheyenne will be released this afternoon; some Black hills train and trains of the branch roads in Nebraska that are still snow bound, will not be able to turn a wheel until to-morrow.

Rescued From Death.

WEST NATICOKE, Pa., Feb. 9.—The three miners who were hemmed in by water and supposed to be drowned in No. 8 colliery of the Susquehanna Coal company last Wednesday afternoon, were rescued alive this morning. They could not have lived much longer on account of a scarcity of air. The names of the men are John W. Riner, Wm. Cragle and Michael Shelank.

Discharged From Custody.

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 9.—In the case of Walter Potter, of Potter, Lovell & Co., charged with embezzlement, Judge Hardy this morning discharged Potter.

SIR JOHN'S MANIFESTO

According to Which Conservatives are Angels and Grits the Reverse.

OTTAWA, Feb. 9.—Sir John A. Macdonald has issued a manifesto to the people of Canada, which appears this morning. He starts out by giving a glowing history of the country since his government was elected in 1887, and attributes it to Conservative policy. He praised the National Policy and abuses the political principles of the Grits, whom he stigmatizes as annexationists. He concludes by saying: "As for myself, my course is clear. A British subject I was born, a British subject I will die; with my latest breath will I oppose veiled treason, which attempts by sordid and mercenary means to win our people from their allegiance." The manifesto contains nothing about his own views on reciprocity. That question is evidently not for the people of Ontario, to whom he particularly addresses himself, but it will do duty in the maritime provinces where people are ready to vote for it.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Election Gossip From the Eastern Provinces—The Candidates.

QUEBEC, Feb. 9.—The liberal meeting which was to have been held at Jacques Cartier Market to-night has been postponed, because of Mr. Laurier's inability to be at Quebec. There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the Liberal organization for this district this evening, at the residence of Senator Pelletier. Hon. Mr. Laurier arrived at Athabasca on Saturday.

Hon. Mr. Mercier and Mr. Robideaux left town yesterday for Montreal. The English Liberals of Megantic, who had severed themselves from the Liberal ranks on account of the Riel cry, have come back to the fold on the question of reciprocity, and the Liberals are confident of carrying this county.

Henry Simard, Liberal, of Malbai, will oppose Mr. Simon in Charlevoix.

It is said that Mayor Fremont will be an Opposition candidate in Quebec county.

Treasurer Sheyhan and Mr. Garneau leave for Europe on the 14th ult. in order to prepare the road for a loan of ten million dollars.

QUEBEC, Feb. 9.—Sir Hector Langevin and Sir A. P. Caron are in town. In county Lislet P. B. Cosgrain opened his campaign yesterday at Lislet parish and at St. Eugene. One of the federal ministers at present in town declares that Mr. Cosgrain will have a very strong opposition in his county. The name of Etienne Dussault of Levis is now mentioned as a probable candidate against Dr. Guay.

Captain Martineau Lewis is spoken of as a probable candidate in Dorchester. Several of the electors of Quebec county are anxious to have Mr. T. Cosgran run as a ministerial candidate in case of Sir A. P. Caron declining election in that county. On the other hand Mr. Martineau, of Bridge street is spoken of as a probable opposition candidate in the county.

Vallee is said to have intentions upon the county of Portneuf. After vespers yesterday at Levis, Sir Adolph Caron addressed a large meeting in the town hall. The meeting was opened by the mayor, Mr. Belleau, Q. C., Sir Adolph appealed to the intelligent elector to support a policy truly national, which had made the country prosperous and which had received the almost unanimous support of the people since 1878, and said the policy of unrestricted reciprocity, which must inevitably lead to direct taxation, and as a necessary consequence annexation. He stated he was no annexationist, but wanted Canada to remain where it was, regulating its own fiscal policy, instead of handing it over to Washington, and his fondest hope was that our country would still remain one of the brightest jewells of the British crown.

The mayor spoke after him and besought the electors to support a policy which had done so much for the industries of the town of Levis. T. Casgran was followed by Mr. Roy, of Levis, Mr. L. Taschereau, the candidate for Beauce, Mr. Darvey and Capt. Martineau, Mr. J. Roy and Mr. Darveau. At the close of the meeting the mayor offered the candidature for Levis to Sir Adolph, promising him the support of the Conservative party, with the certain defeat of any candidate who would run against him. Sir Adolph promised to consider the question.

The Mayor of Levis recalled the fact yesterday that Mr. Chapleau's successful provincial campaign of 1881 was opened by him at Levis, and he anticipated that equally successful results would attend a present contest.

A number of ship laborers have already returned from the South.

Four school of cavalry deserters were brought in on Saturday and will be tried by court-martial.

Mr. Sylvain, ex-M.P., and now crown lands agent at Rimouski, is seriously ill and it is reported is about to resign his office in favor of his son, who is to be his successor.

TO RELIEVE THE JEWS.

BARON HERCH'S IMMENSE GIFT FOR THEIR BENEFIT.

A Repetition of the Mordaunt Case Brewing in London Social Circles—The Prince of Wales Fretting a Good Deal—Kaiser's Concessions to Catholics.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—The news of Baron Herch's immense gift for the benefit of Russian and Polish Jews emigrating to the United States has been received with considerable satisfaction in London, as there is so strong an opposition, both among the working classes and business men, to any more immigration of Russian Jews to England, and Lord Salisbury's government has been asked to interfere to prevent it. The latest arrivals from Russia on their way to America are of the most squalid description, and it is probable that the local authorities would have interfered to prevent their remaining here even if the Imperial Government had not acted. It is hoped that Baron Hersch's donations will induce the United States to send back to Europe the many thousands of Russian Jews who are proposing to swarm across the Atlantic and settle in New York and other American cities, most of whom are destitute. An Odessa dispatch says that instructions have been received from St. Petersburg to facilitate emigration and get rid of all Jews possible.

The Kaiser's concessions to the Roman Catholic party, whose members in the Reichstag are strongly supporting the government, are arousing suspicion and uneasiness among the Protestants of North Germany, and the protestations of Free Masons against any yielding to the Jesuits have been followed by similar protests from the church and religious bodies. Concord between the Kaiser and the Vatican, however, continues. It is said that the Kaiser was much impressed when he visited Rome by his interview with Leo XIII; and has ever since treated the Pontiff with the respect due his exalted position. It is known that the Vatican and Germany have had frequent and very important communications with each other and that especially as regards the question of socialism, there has been established well defined concordant action. The pontiff, it is said, recognizes the German emperor a conservative power, capable of entering on and conducting victoriously a struggle against socialism, and to this end instructions have been sent by the Holy See to German bishops to co-operate with the imperial government in its efforts to prevent the spread of socialism. It is reported on good Catholic authority that instructions to make war on socialism have been sent, not to prelates in Germany alone, but to bishops throughout the world, where such ideas are supposed to have any popular head.

Scandal is brewing in the highest English circles, and is the most serious since the Mordaunt divorce case in 1875, and not dissimilar in character. This scandal, if it should come to boiling over, which is possible, will be of the greatest interest in the United States for the chief party to it is a lady well-known in that country. The Prince of Wales is already looking gloomy about something, as in the natural course of events he is getting too near the throne to feel certain matters as lightly as he did years ago, and in the court of the future emperor and king, for the purpose of saving a lady's reputation, would not be endured with the same calm dignity as in the Mordaunt case. The husband in the present affair is evidently fretting a good deal, but is uncertain as to the course he should pursue.

Last night several collisions occurred between steamships at Gravesend. The steamer Carolina bound for London from Grangmouth was in collision with the steamer Lambeth and the former vessel sank. Suddenly the Lambeth collided with the steamer Malvine and the latter was beached to save her from sinking. The steamer Schwan bound for London ran into the steamship Delambre sinking her.

Baron Wissmann, the German commander of the west coast of Africa, is engaged, according to a Zanzibar dispatch, in hostilities with the native tribe of Musindi near Kilimenjaro. Tippo Tip has recovered from his severe illness.

The United States consul in replying to questions as to the rumors which connect his name with the portfolio of the treasury said to-day: 'I have not received any message from President Harrison and I know nothing about any proposition to offer me the treasury portfolio.

The French police are tracing the individual who sent a false telegram about affairs in Rio Janeiro for the purpose of creating a panic in Brazilian bonds, and they hope to soon have the guilty person arrested.

Russia will use the labor of exiles, whose sentence includes hard labor, in construction of the Siberian railway.

Preferential Fiscal Relations.

LONDON, Feb. 3.—In the Commons to-day Right Hon. James Lowther, Conservative, asked whether the Government proposed to take immediate measures to promote the formation of preferential fiscal relations between Great Britain and the British colonies. Baron Henry De Worms, of the colonial office, replied that the question was receiving careful consideration, and the Government recognized its urgency.

Newfoundland Indignant.

OTTAWA, Feb. 7.—The St. Johns Telegram, the organ of the Newfoundland government, publishes a fierce attack on Canada and England, in connection with the collapse of the reciprocity negotiations between that country and the United States. It says that it was agreed to with Mr. Blaine which only awaited the signature of the British minister. The Telegram concludes:—"It seems that the mischief has been wrought in London, not in Washington. Canada has no influence with the American government not a particle, but with the Imperial government it is different. Sir John Macdonald and Sir Charles Tupper, who again effect the Dominion government, managed to persuade the Imperial authorities that a treaty between the United States and Newfoundland would be detrimental to the interests of Canada, and so Her Majesty's assent is withheld. We do not know in what principle of equity or fair play Premier Salisbury justifies his anomalous condition in this respect, but we know the moral effect of the British government's action in refusing its sanction to this trade treaty after delegating our commissioner to negotiate it, will have a damaging influence in the colonies generally on estimates of the honesty and integrity of English statesmen. What colony will now care to trust the British government, in view of the faithless manner in which it has acted toward us in this connection?"

BATTLE OF BALLOTS.

The Ottawa Press On the Political Situation—Different Views.

OTTAWA, Feb. 3.—The Free Press to-night says: "We all know what the real reason of the Tory chief is for dissolving Parliament. He wants to avoid an investigation of the Lagevin-McGreevy scandal before facing the electors. He desires to avoid another discussion of that Northwest dual language question in the present parliament and to shirk the responsibility of dealing with the Manitoba schools and language bills.

He does not like the prospect of being compelled to legislate on the question of Northwest government. Hence he dissolves parliament, and will make an effort to purchase a majority of the constituencies at a time when no revision of electoral lists has been made for two years, and consequently thousands of qualified voters are disfranchised. Sir John is also afraid of the Dominion census, which, if honestly taken, will prove beyond doubt the utter failure of his trade policy.

OTTAWA, Feb. 3.—The Journal (Independent) says this evening: "The Government has made a shrewd move in dissolving Parliament. At no time since the general elections has a moment appeared more favorable for the Conservatives and unfavorable to their opponents, and it is not likely that dissolution could be as much to the advantage of the ruling party at any future date. For the moment there is not on the Conservative horizon a single cloud promising an immediate embarrassment."

TRANSPLANTATION OF HEARTS

Remarkable Effects Which a Doctor Claims to Have Accomplished.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The New York Daily Continent, formerly the New York Star, publishes the following:

Rufugia Gutierrez, a resident of the City of Mexico, is here on a mission which will interest the entire medical world. He is at the Hotel America. Senor Gutierrez makes some remarkable statements. Dr. Martinez of the City of Mexico, he states, has for years made a specialty of the circulation of the blood and in his researches claims to have experimented successfully in a most extraordinary manner. Senor Gutierrez has the reputation of being entirely trustworthy.

"You will perhaps hardly credit me," the doctor said to a reporter to-day," but Dr. Martinez has taken the heart from one animal and placed it in another, and vice versa. No disagreeable effects were noticeable, and the animals on recovering from the anesthetic were as well, apparently as ever.

Martinez has experimented successfully with cats and dogs, and would soon take the heart from a cow and place it in the body of a bull.

Dr. Martinez is so enthusiastic that he has petitioned the Mexican government to give him two criminals now under sentence of death. The offer is under consideration, and a reply to his request is expected in a few weeks.

"If Dr. Martinez secures permission to use the men he will show the medical world he can do all he claims.

"He will, through a process that is yet a secret, transfer the hearts of the men, one to the other, and without the slightest injury to either.

"The American as well as the European medical world will be notified of the date of the experiment. The whole matter will be carried out with all the publicity possible, so that science and humanity may be benefited.

"A movement is now on foot to raise a fund to enable him to carry out his experiments."

Against the Processions.

A petition is being circulated at Wellington by the non-union miners which is to be presented to the Attorney-General, asking that the processions of the union miners be discontinued. These processions have been the bone of contention all along, but so far have seemed to do very little harm. Just what result will follow this latest move remains to be seen. The union men say that if the government makes a move to stop the processions other means will be adopted to allow of their continuance.

Notice.

I will make all clothing to order at greatly reduced prices next thirty days. My reason for doing this is, I have leased the corner of the new Turner block and have ordered a large and well selected stock to fill it, and I want to run off all my present stock so as not to move it there. NORTHERN CHINA.

Burning of a Steamer—Appalling Loss of Human Life—Brutal Chinese.

YOKOHOMA, Jan. 20.—On Christmas day one of the most fearful disasters of modern times occurred 25 miles above Chinkiang, one of the open treaty ports on the Yangtse Kiang. The steamship Shanghai, a fine iron paddle wheel steamer of 3,088 tons and 300 horse power, built to the order of the China Navigation company expressly for river service, left Shanghai on the 24th December and Chinkiang the following day with some 480 Chinese, one European, and two Japanese passengers. At 7 o'clock in the morning, when the ship was between 20 and 30 miles above Chinkiang, fire was discovered in the after part, where a lot of cotton was stowed. The fire pumps and hose were immediately got ready and an attempt made to get a stream of water on the fire, but unsuccessfully, the surging crowd of excited Chinese passengers rendering the utmost efforts of the officers and crew hopelessly futile. The connections were effected, only to find the hose, which of necessity passed through one of the Chinese saloons, trodden down and obstructed by the scores of panic-stricken Chinese. Orders were consequently given by the master, Captain D. Martin, to beach the steamer, and this within 15 minutes of the outbreak of fire was accomplished. The flames in the meantime had obtained hold of the greater part of the doomed vessel, and no time was lost in getting ropes over the side and everything else done that was possible under the circumstances to get everyone on shore. In the naval court of inquiry just concluded at Shanghai, evidence was given to show that "the stem of the ship was about 20 feet from dry land when beached," and that from the weather side it was possible for passengers to wade ashore. The crew, Chinese, remained obedient to orders, but were as powerless to lower boats, of which only four were carried, as they had been to work the fire hose. Two of the boats were wrapped in flames and the other two rendered unapproachable by dense smoke by the time the order was given. Had anything like order been maintained by the passengers, the loss of life would have been incomparably less. Or had the officers and crew of several junks and other crafts which were in the immediate vicinity of the burning steamer been influenced by the most ordinary humanitarian feelings, nothing like such a deplorable loss of life would have resulted. As it was, almost all who threw themselves into the river, and by far the greater number did so, drowned within sight and reach of fellow-countrymen, who, in their ignorance and inhumanity preferred to loot than to attempt to save life. It was stated before the court that there were no less than twenty big salt junks and thirty smaller craft in sight, not one of which rendered assistance. "The men in the smaller craft lowered their sails, looted the baggage, and left the people to drown." And the same heartless cruelty is alleged to have been perpetrated by those on board a Chinese mandarin gunboat and a Chinese steam launch which were near at hand.

To add to the heartrending situation, the people on shore stripped the dead as they came ashore and looted the living. This incomprehensible heartlessness or indifference, the counterpart of which has so frequently been dwelt upon by writers on China, is the natural consequence of the firmly-rooted idea that the saving of life involves an acceptance of responsibility for the disposition of the man or woman saved. Altogether, 220 Chinese are believed to have been drowned, and six to have perished in the flames. The exact number, it is authoritatively stated, can never be known.

The disaster is regarded as "the most appalling catastrophe that has ever happened in Chinese waters." Within a few yards of shore—the ship's stem was less than seven from the bank—and with scores of strong arms within easy reach, over two hundred drowned, whilst their unfeeling and brutal fellow-countrymen abandoned themselves to looting and robbing.

No record of a like nature is possible to-day in any country pretending to any degree of civilization or advancement, and it is safe to assert that China to-day stands alone in her ability to produce such a frightful and absolutely heartless picture. The court of enquiry exonerates the captain and officers of all blame but directs attention to certain precautions that should be adopted in reference to steam fire connections, and the lodgement of Chinese passengers on steamers carrying such large numbers of passengers. Some precautionary measures certainly seem imperatively called for. The inhuman conduct of the natives in the neighborhood whether on shore or in boats at the time of the burning of the Shanghai, is pointed out by the court as a fit subject of representation to the Chinese authorities. The Shanghai was built in Scotland in 1873, and had an iron deck, only her upper works and houses being of wood. In appearance she resembled the huge American side wheel steamers which the Americans were the first to prove the fitness for the ocean travel, and the pioneer of which, the old "golden age" has just been broken up in Yokohoma harbor after some forty years successful sea service.

The Daughter of Jairus.

A special service will be held in St. James church to-morrow evening when the sacred cantata "The daughter of Jairus" will be rendered. The story of Jairus' daughter being raised from the dead is familiar to every Sunday school child, but it is not without its charms for the parent. So that when set to sweet music, and told with that feeling it calls for, it cannot fail to be both interesting and attractive.

Canadians as Soldiers.

Speaking of Canadians, Major Edmond Malet remarked that they made the best soldiers physically that he ever saw. In his company, the 81st New-York Volunteer Infantry, in the late war, he said he had 45 of them, and no hardships could dampen their gay spirits nor toil exhaust their hardy frames. In those terrible forced marches of the army of the Potomac in the Peninsula, with the thermometer far up in the nineties, and the dust a foot deep, when thousands of men fell out by the roadside, many of them never to march again, these Canadians trudged along cheerily, beguiling the weary way with joke and song. They could not understand the wastefulness of their American comrades, who would hurl aside overcoats, blankets and other impediments, on a hard march without a thought, so they would carefully gather them up, add them to their own load, and bring them into camp. "One evening, I remember," said the major, "a Canadian soldier came into bivouac, and after a fearful march from early dawn, with twelve overcoats piled on his knapsack, which he had carried all day. He sold them back to their original owners for $1 each."—Boston Globe. So much for the hardy life and habits rigid economy peculiar to Canadians.

GOV. NORTHEN.

The Georgia Governor Snubs Gould—Would not Attend Banquet.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—The World's Atlanta, Ga., special says that while Jay Gould was being wined and dined in this city on Saturday, the noticeable absence of Gov. Northen from all mention in the programme was several times commented upon. The receptions were municipal, commercial and social in character, yet neither at the city council reception, nor at the capital City Club lunch, nor at the evening reception tendered by Hugh T. Inman, did the governor or any member of his family appear. Owing to Gov. Northen's limited personal acquaintance in the city his name had probably been overlooked. It was agreed on all sides that there was a mistake some where. Some alliance men were disposed to think that a slight was intended, as Northen has been elected by them. The facts leaked out to-day. It seems that Northen did not meet Gould because he did not wish to. He was duly invited to join the citizens of Atlanta in doing honor to Gould, and it was represented to him that Gould's visit to Atlanta meant much in a business sense and that Georgia would gain by his proposed transcontinental alliance with the Richmond terminal system, more than any other state, since it meant the pouring of the grain shipments of the west into Savannah and Brunswick. "I don't want to meet Gould," was the governor's reply; "his visit here has no official character. While I would like to meet the other gentlemen of the party I cannot do so without the presence of Gould. I object to him personally because I disapprove of his policy of monopoly. I regret to be forced to this conclusion, but common people owe Gould nothing, and as chief executive of Georgia I can't do him reverence." This is why Governor Northern's name appeared no where on the list. There is great diversity of opinion in regard to his course.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

DIVISIONAL COURT.

(Before Mr. Justice Walkem & Drake.)

February 4, 1891.

This was an appeal from His Honor Judge Bole, sitting as a County Court judge at Vancouver.

The only question submitted for our decision is whether the appellants were so represented in the proceedings taken as to be liable to have the order of 11th August, 1890, made against them. That order is made against the appellants ordering them to pay the plaintiffs $673.93 and $158.40 costs in respect of a mechanic's lien upon certain lands in New Westminster district, or in default that the lands be sold; and is made on a summons taken out by the plaintiffs on the 17th September, 1890, asking for an order or decree to enforce a lien filed by the plaintiffs in the action.

The plaintiffs were material men and supplied lumber and materials to the defendants, who were contractors for the erection of some houses for the appellants. On 25th August, 1891, the plaintiffs filed a lien against lots 17, 18, and 19, block 114, subdivision lot 541, group 1, New Westminster district, the property of the appellants, for $682.93. Notice of this lien was given to the appellants on 27th August, 1890. On the 30th August the respondents obtained judgment against the defendants for $721.93 debt and costs.

Under section 5 lien holders, i. e., persons decribed in section 4 are to share pari passu in any moneys derived from the realization of the lien under the act to the same extent that their immediate employer would take but no further. The meaning of this section is not very clear, but I think it is intended to limit the amount recoverable to the sum due from the employer to the contractor after that has been ascertained and all persons having liens shall share pari passu.

By section 8 of the act notice of the lien served on the person against whom a lien is claimed has the same effect as an attaching order nisi, and binds all moneys due from the employer to the contractor as from the date of the service of the notice; and the section goes on to provide that the amount due to the claimant by the person employing him shall be declared in an action to realize the lien against the fund under procedure similar to that thereinafter provided for the realization of a lien against land. It is to be observed that this section speaks of establishing the lien holder's claim by an action. In order to ascertain what is the procedure to enforce a lien against land, we must turn to sections 13, 14, 15 and 16, which are under the subsidiary title of enforcement.

In section 13 the term action is not used, but suit for all practical purposes, and the two terms are identical; and it is enacted that all lien holders may be joined in one suit and all suits and proceedings brought by a lien holder shall be brought on behalf of all lien holders.

Section 14 compels the owner or contractor to apply to consolidated suits at the risk of costs.

And section 15 uses the term action, and authorizes the judge to consolidate on application of any interested party. If any lien holder can proceed in any other way than by action or suit these clauses would be imperative. If one lien holder proceeds by a sample suit and another by suit, can the owner in the suit apply to consolidate the application on the the summons? He cannot in my opinion under this section consolidate claims that are not brought by action or suit. Therefore the steps which one lien holder takes to establish his rights must be by action or suit in order to give effect to sections 13, 14 and 15.

Section 16 authorizes the lien holder, in cases within the jurisdiction of the County Court to proceed in a summary manner by summons and order, the question is, does this clause give any greater, or more summary jurisdiction to the County Court judge than that which he possesses under the County Court act. In this County Court, a person desiring to bring a suit, enters a plaint with the registrar of the court in writing and therefore a summons is issued, see section 81.

And section 79 enacts that subject to the provisions of that act, and save as may be provided by rules of court, all actions in which the County court has jurisdiction shall be commenced by plaint and shall be heard and determined in a summary way. The only difference between the two acts is this, that instead of proceeding plaint followed by summons, the lien act authorizes a summons in the first instance; but that summons must in my opinion be one issued under the ordinary practice of the court. In referring to the interpretative clauses attached to the County Court rules, which have the force of law, we find two classes of summons mentioned, a default summons and an ordinary summons. The former requires personal service, the latter does not.

I do not see anything in section 16 which excludes the ordinary process of the county court or which gives an extraordinary jurisdiction. Section 16 must be read with section 8 and the two sections compel the lien holder first to give notice of lien, 2nd that the amount due by the employer to the contractor should be declared in an action; and such action should be summary.

And sections 13, 14 and 15 and section 22 show clearly that a suit or action must be commenced a summons such as the one appealed against is not the commencement of a suit or action; neither is it such a summons as can be issued by the county court under its provisions or rules.

On referring to section 22 all liens shall cease to exist after the expiration of 30 days from the filing of the affidavits mentioned in section 9 unless the claimant shall in the meantime have instituted proceedings to realize his lien, and a certificate of the registrar of the court certifying that such action has been filed (bank of Montreal v. Haffner.)

On appeal 597 the words "institute proceedings to realize his lien" were held to mean that proceedings were to be instituted against all parties whose interests were affected by such proceedings and within the time limited against everyone who could be affected by his lien, otherwise the proceedings can only bind the interest of those who are parties to the proceedings. Statutes conferring jurisdiction are strictly construed and Bramwell J. A., in Wells v. London & Kilberry railway 5 C. D. 130 says we ought to construe an act of parliament according to a fair meaning of the word, and so here a fair meaning of the words used authorizes the issue of the ordinary county court summons any other construction would interfere with rights of persons and property as would in fact give a new procedure to the County Court not contemplated by the act. It would relieve the lien holder from the necessity of proving that there was any money due from the owner of the property on which the lien was registered to the contractor. It would substitute a chamber originating summons if such a proceeding is known in the County Court for the trial of the contested facts and take away from the defendant his right to have the facts passed on by a jury when these material and important issues are eliminated from the Pen act by the proceedings which have been taken and when by giving to the language used in sec. 16 the ordinary meaning of similar language used in the County Court Act all these rights are reserved for the party sued and no injury inflicted on the lien holder. I think that the latter construction ought to prevail and for these reasons I think the appeal should be allowed, and that the order of the 11th of Aug., 1890, made by his honor, the County Court judge of New Westminster district be set aside and the summons of 17th of September, 1889, and all proceeding in connection therewith. The appellants to have their costs of this appeal and of the court below.

Mr. Helmcken for appellant; Mr. Russell for respondent.

ALASKA NEWS ITEMS.

Coal a Scarcity in the North—Brain Food for the Governor.

The TIMES is indebted to Capt. W. E. George, of the steamer Alki, for late copies of the Juneau Mining Record, from which the following items are taken:

Coal at the present time is a scarce article at Juneau.

The snow and ice has nearly disappeared from the ground under the melting influence of the warm rains.

An indignation meeting of the miners and prospectors was held at Juneau on January the 20th, to denounce a communication about Alaska mining sent to the New York Mining and Engineering Journal.

Mr. Thorp brought up among other things for his market, a lot of fresh oysters on ice, which were quite a luxury in Juneau. It is said that fresh oysters is an excellent brain food. If such should be the case, the government should order a few pounds on every boat for the governor so as to prepare him for his next annual report on Alaska.

REQUISITION

To Messrs. E. G. Prior and Thomas Earle.

GENTLEMEN,—In view of the very important matters likely to come before the new Parliament about to be elected, affecting the general welfare of the Dominion, and (as we anticipate) in particular the commercial interests of this district, and realizing how vitally necessary it is that we should be represented in that Parliament by members of experience ability and honesty of purpose, which your records in the last House have proved to us you are fully possessed of,

We, the undersigned voters hereby request you to allow yourselves to be put in nomination for re-election, as our representatives in the Dominion House of Commons, and we pledge you our support and influence to secure your election.

REPLY.

GENTLEMEN,—We beg to thank you most sincerely for the very flattering and numerously signed requisition you have seen fit to present us with requesting us to allow our names to be put in nomination for re-election as your representatives in the Dominion House of Commons.

After such an expression of confidence from so many of our fellow citizens in our honesty of purpose and our ability to worthily represent you, we feel that we cannot do otherwise than accede to your request, and, therefore offer ourselves for re-election.

We will, in due course, publish our views on the principal questions affecting the Province and the Dominion.

If re-elected, we shall in the future, as in the past, leave nothing undone that we, in our judgment, may consider to be to the interest of our District and Province.

We have the honor to be gentlemen,
Your obedient servants.

E. G. PRIOR,
THOMAS EARLE.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS

OH, MY BACK!

STOP IT NOW, SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when kind Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

THE ELECTION.

The opponents of high taxation ought to sweep Canada, from Victoria to Halifax on the 5th of March next. A large majority of the people of the Dominion are in favor of a reduction of the tariff and of reciprocal trade arrangements with any or all countries, especially those of the American continent, with which such treaties can be made. This being the case, the defeat of the protectionist party would seem to be assured. But, unfortunately, what should be the true and only issue with the mass of the people, will be in many places, as in former contests, lost sight of. Local issues arise in every constituency, and the personality of the candidates—"men, not measures"—too often carry the day. The power of the Government, promises of railway and subsidies in doubtful constituencies, and appointments to offices, are used without scruple and too often with complete success. What has been done before will be done again, and for the next four weeks we may be prepared to hear of electoral corruption of the most demoralizing character. Prince Edward Island now returns a solid free trade party. Sir JOHN will promise the little island an appropriation for a tunnel to connect it with the mainland. The concensus of public opinion in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick imperatively demands the removal of the crushing embargo on trade. Sir CHARLES TUPPER has left his post in London to become the chief organizer and generous dispenser of bonuses to the constituencies of those provinces. Quebec, always considered safe, will be worked in the customary manner, by appeals to the religious susceptibilities of the French Canadian. The Red Parlor will pull the wires in Ontario, the Canadian Pacific railway will be expected to take care of Manitoba, and the ghost of a dead issue will be relied on to work the oracle in British Columbia. And yet the tariff reformers ought to, and, we believe, will succeed. The country is not hopelessly immoral, and can distinguish between the real and the false issues. The disastrous wave of protection which flowed over the Dominion in 1878 has been rapidly receding during late years, and there is unmistakeable signs that ebb tide has been reached. The anxiety of Sir JOHN MACDONALD to go to the country on a modified policy of reciprocity is a certain indication that that astute mariner sees the storm approaching and is setting things in order to meet it as best he can. Although as high an authority as ARTEMUS WARD said that "it is not safe to prophesy unless you know," we will venture the prediction, notwithstanding all the advantages that the Government possess, and in face of the wholesale bribery that will be attempted, that the days of restriction are numbered, and that the advocates of freedom of trade will be successful in the contest now pending.

OH! THAT MINE ENEMY WOULD WRITE A BOOK.

Col. PRIOR writes an indignant and undignified letter to the Colonist, in reference to the item published by the Vancouver World and copied into these columns. The writer in the World, as we understood him, put forward the novel plea that Col. PRIOR's re-election as a representative of Victoria was demanded at Ottawa on the ground that our late member, by assiduous attention to the requirements of "society" at the capital, had become very popular with the ladies. The statement was not made by the TIMES, and, Col. PRIOR's charge to the contrary notwithstanding, no "inducement" was based upon it. When a newspaper, known to be friendly, uses such an unusual argument on behalf of a candidate, the TIMES cannot be charged with "mean and cowardly" warfare for simply calling public attention to the stuff made to do duty by Col. PRIOR's friends for reason and common sense. We know nothing about Col. PRIOR's method of taking "rational amusement" while at Ottawa, and we assure that gentleman that we have not the slightest intention of inquiring into a subject that is no concern of ours. And as the admission may be of use to him in the approaching election, we will say now that a man's ability to dance the lancers gracefully, and to relate the latest society gossip at 5 o'clock teas, ought not to militate against him as a politician. Policies are sometimes framed in drawing rooms, and the influence of a Premier's wife is not the least powerful factor, either in ordinary public matters or in great affairs of state. We would not have Col. PRIOR forego the pleasures and privileges which the entree into good society at the capital undoubtedly affords him, unless, by so doing he would be better able to attend to the important interests entrusted to his care. We leave that point for Col. PRIOR to decide. But we are bound to say that we would prefer that our representatives would make for themselves names as successful parliamentarians, or advocates of the interests of their constituents, if indeed they may not become powerful debaters or cabinet ministers, rather than they should acquire a transient social fame as carpet knights and ladies' men. Col. PRIOR's letter in the Colonist, which was written in reply to alleged insinuations, itself contains many erroneous assertions. For instance, here is one: "The TIMES seems to think it most damaging to my reputation that the people of Ottawa, or as it terms it, the 'society ladies', would be sorry if I did not go back there." Now, as a matter of fact, the TIMES did not "seem to think" anything of the kind, and "it" (THE TIMES) did not use the words "society ladies." The Colonel put the language of the Vancouver World's correspondent into our mouth, and then "goes for us" in fine style. Might we borrow a sentence and say: "We like a manly enemy but this style of political warfare is mean and cowardly." Certainly, Col. PRIOR will not advance his cause if he writes many more letters of this kind. In the first place, if it was deemed necessary, it ought to have been written to and in correction of the Vancouver World; and in the second place the writer's inferences were wrong and his language—considering that no provocation was received—was unnecessarily offensive, especially from one who has still to make his "calling and election sure."

ASKING FOR BREAD THEY GET A STONE.

The manifesto to the electors of Canada by SIR JOHN A. MCDONALD, referred to in our special dispatch from Ottawa, is no doubt—the time, the occasion and the man considered—a very disappointing document to his friends. It was to be expected that on the eve of an election, and when the high priest of protection had showed signs of weakening, that the all-important and all-pervading question of reciprocity, or of reciprocity with the United States versus trade restriction, would have been discussed, and that, too, in such a full and unreserved manner as to settle the question of the government's attitude thereto in the mind of every doubting Thomas in the Tory ranks. But the document contains no reference to the tariff, and excepting that the premier, for the hundreth time, proclaims himself a British subject now and forever, and denounces as veiled traitors those Canadians who, as loyal to Canada as himself, are advocating a radical change in our fiscal policy, this prince of demagogues does not even incidentally refer to the great issue upon which he has dissolved parliament. Sir JOHN will dodge the real issue as long as he can. He will raise false cries, such as the "loyalty" of himself and his supporters, to deceive the gullable, and the great magician will not scruple at deception to secure the end he has in view. This "loyalty" cry, as Dr. JOHNSON put it, is the last refuge of political scoundrelism, and it may be that Sir JOHN, recognizing the inevitable, is ready to die in the last ditch, with the glory of an invicible "devotion" to the "flag" making his passage into the shades of opposition as easy and agreeable as such a transition can be to one who above all things loves to wield political power. The "trooly loyal" dodge is, in vulgar language, "played out." The people of Canada want to know what the restrictionist chief has to say about reciprocity, and they will not be turned aside from that question by any cheap clap-trap of the kind which Sir JOHN apparently seems determined to rely on to carry him through.

THE LIBEL BILL.

The opposition to Mr. DAVIE's libel bill from the press is general, and, strange to say, it is most pronounced on the part of the newspapers that support the Attorney-General. The Colonist says the press "asked for bread and have been given a stone." That paper lays much stress upon the unintelligible and ambiguous phraseology of the bill, and unquestionably the Colonist is right. Mr. BEAVEN's bill was plain, simple, and easily understood; Mr. DAVIE's is a maze of legal verbiage, meaning anything or nothing, and which will require the legal training of a chief justice to unravel. Nevertheless, it should be possible, in a House favorable to a libel bill in harmony with the age, to amend Mr. DAVIE's bill in such a manner as to make it acceptable to press and public. The Vancouver News-Advertiser, speaking of the bill in question, says:

"From the remarks made in the Legislature by the Attorney-General when the bill introduced by Hon. Robert Beaven was rejected, it was supposed that the measure which the former stated he would introduce, would be practically a copy of the libel law of Ontario. But the bill laid before the Legislature on Thursday appears to differ in many essential details from the Ontarie law, and we understand that the journalists of the Province, as a whole, are much dissatisfied with the bill. Indeed, some of them go so far as to say that they would prefer that the law should remain unchanged, unsatisfactory as it is admitted to be in many particulars, than that an incomplete and inefficient measure should be substituted for it. Under these circumstances it is to be hoped that the Legislature will insist upon such a postponement of the further steps in the passage of the bill, as will enable those most directly concerned in it, to have ample time to consider it in all its bearings and permit them to lay their views on the matter before the House, so that the result of any legislation on the subject may be a law which will attain the desired end, and not require amendment at the next session."

THE BOSTON BANQUET.

Sir RICHARD CARTWRIGHT spoke at the banquet of the Boston merchants last week in presence of distinguished statesmen from all parts of the United States. Some of his remarks are worth repeating at the present time in Victoria, where of all cities in Canada there ought to be a pronounced feeling for free trade with the United States. Sir RICHARD said:

"Free trade with Canada will benefit quite as many of the people of the United States as of the people of Canada, and to quite as large an extent. Man for man you will gain quite as much as we will, and Canada does not come as a beggar, asking for the crumbs which fall from the rich man's table. Canada offers and Canada desires only a fair exchange and no robbery. Moreover, I believe, indeed I know, that free trade with us would be of great value to the entire northern portion of the United States and trebly so to the people of New England. Even as it is, your trade with Canada is not to be despised. Per head you sell more goods to Canada than to any other country. Absolutely we buy as much from you as France does, and more than any other country except Great Britain and Germany. I think, in fact, we stand third on the list of countries to which you export your productions, and we alone, five millions as we are, buy as much as 50,000,000 Mexicans and South Americans do all put together. Surely if we do this in the teeth of two hostile tariffs, it is no idle word of mine to say that you cannot measure or bound the possibilities which lie before both countries if only these artificial walls were thrown down. North of Lakes Ontario and Erie, and of the river St. Lawrence and east of Lake Huron, south of the 45th parallel of latitude, and including mainly in the present the Dominion of Canada, there is as fair a country as exists on the American continent—nearly as large in area as New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio combined—and equal, if not superior, as a whole, to those states in agricultural capability. It is a land where grows the finest barley, which the brewing interests of the United States must have if it ever expects to rival Great Britain in its annual export of £11,000,000 sterling of malt products. It raises and grazes the finest cattle, with qualities specially desirable to make good the deterioration of stock in other sections, and its climatic conditions, created by an almost encirclement of great lakes, especially fits it to grow men. Such a country is one of the greatest gifts of Providence to the human race; better than bonanzas of silver or rivers whose sands run gold. Now, if this be approximately correct, and I honestly believe it is, I think I may claim that we have something to give as well as you, and that there is very good reason to think that between two such countries as yours and ours there is much room for profitable exchange."

The indications at present are, notwithstanding that nine-tenths of the electors agree with the views of Sir RICHARD CARTWRIGHT, that Victoria is too apathetic and too much wedded to her political idols, to do anything to bring about the commercial revolution above indicated, and which would transform a city of 25,000 into a metropolis of 250,000 before ten years.

POLITICAL.

A dispatch, which may be taken for what it is worth, says: Premier MERCIER, Liberal, has taken the stump in Quebec for Hon. J. A. CHAPLEAU, and anticipates a clean sweep for the Conservative party in the lower provinces, as the Liberals are disorganized.

Mr. CORBOULD has announced himself as a candidate for re-election in Westminster district. His card does not contain a single political declaration.

It is rumored that Sir DONALD SMITH will run for Winnipeg. No doubt Mr. SCARTH would retire in Sir DONALD's favor.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL.

A unanimous report was made by the United State Senate committee on foreign relations in favor of a bill providing for a government guarantee of the bonds of the Nicaragua Construction company to the amount of $100,000,000. The bonds to be issued will be payable to the company as the work proceeds and will be dated January 1, 1891, and be redeemable in one hundred years, and it is now reasonably certain, observes an exchange, that this stupendous project will be carried out, and a waterway thus opened up between the two great hemispheres of ocean. No doubt the temptation will be very strong for the United States to seek the control of the new route, and without the support of other nations, it would not be easy for the little Republic of Nicaragua to resist the pressure her Titan sister could bring to bear. Under the circumstances the wonder is that Great Britain and other European powers do not come forward to invest in the enterprise, and either stipulate for a voice in the control or take guarantees for its neutrality. The experience of France with the Panama canal was not encouraging, it is true, but this seems a much more hopeful undertaking.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

RIDER HAGGARD, the novelist, was mercilessly blackballed when his name came up for ballot recently in the London Society of Antiquaries. The archaeologists evidently consider that his discovery—in his brain—of King Solomon's mines is not an achievement that entitles him to communion with them.

A chief of the Dakota Indians, narrating the grievances of his people, recently said: "You gave us Beef every twelve sleeps. That was good; but now one beef goes for eighteen sleeps for thirty people, and our children starve." This is queerly put, but it tells the tale of Indian wrongs in a forcible manner.

The "Swearing Club" of Kautsford, says an English contemporary, "is quite fit to rank with the best of the societies registered in the older Spectator—with the Ugly Club, who come together to be kept in countenance by each other's ill looks. * * * * It is not to be thought that the "Swearing Club" is literally an association of men pledged to exchange curses on certain nights of the week, though it looked alarmingly like it when the Kautsford publican put forward his bare request to be allowed to give drink to a "Swearing Club" at hours when clean-mouthed men have gone home. The clerk to the justices seems to have jumped very naturally to the idea that the bench was being asked deliberately to assist, in stimulating with strong drink the fancy of such merchants in fantastic oaths as the Philichoddy, who always swears topically in "Old St. Paul's." His horror was relieved when the publican recalled to him the old principle of the lucus a non. The club derives its name from the fact that the members do not as a rule swear, and that its constitution visits them with a "nominal fine" when they do. At the end of the year the nominal fines mount into a sum that is no longer nominal, and a supper is bought, the members who have sworn during the year literally eating their own words; while the members who have not sworn, but only upheld the rigor of the constitution, may be said to sup off their own virtue; and as the ancients and THACKERAY tell us of men who have wrapped themselves up in the same thing for a garment, we may now take it for proved that a man's virtue is meat, drink and clothing to him. And in return for this assurance we will perhaps not grudge the "Swearing Club" an extra hour in which to refrain from oaths in each other's company on one night in the year.

TEACHERS' DELEGATION.

TO THE EDITOR:—In Saturday's Colonist, an item appeared stating that a delegation from the Mainland Teachers' Institute, had come over to interview the Superintendent of Education, regarding amendments to the school law. A member of that Institute would like to know when the delegates were appointed, and why a number of the members were not notified of the meeting of the Institute held last January.

TEACHER.

THE MOSSBACK STYLE OF NOMINATION.

TO THE EDITOR:—Can you inform me as to whether the Liberal Conservative Association of Victoria is still in existence or not. If it is, how comes this doublebarrelled requisition to Messrs. Prior & Earle? Has the old clique again taken matters into their hands with a view to running things to suit themselves and with the intention of ignoring

THE LIBERAL CONSERVATIVE ASSOCIATION.

MORBID REVEALMENTS.

TO THE EDITOR:—Your contemporary in two of its recent issues has thought fit to gratify the morbid feelings of some of its readers by information from visits to the prison cell of the convict Whalen, with representations of what he had to say upon the murder he had committed, and of how it happened, he was led to do it, with additional accounts of his appearance, of his weight, and his observations in parting with his clothes for his prison garb, and of the great value that would be put upon these clothes if reaching Seattle, etc., not forgetting his having had his photograph taken. Surely, surely, it ought to be somebody's business to denounce, and express disgust at such sensational trash being put before the public. Such at any rate is the opinion of your correspondent who signs himself COMMON SENSE.

Where is G. W. R. Lee?

Since the 29th of January, G. W. R. Lee has not been seen in the city of Victoria, he having left that evening on the steamer City of Seattle for Tacoma. It has since transpired that shortly before he left, Mr. Lee negotiated a note for several thousand dollars, and that he was also heavily involved, his principal creditors being Morse & Co. of Vancouver, lumber dealers, whose agent he was. There has never in the past been the slightest suspicion of the missing man's business integrity, but no trace of him can be obtained, and no reason of his absence given. He is the the secretary of the Sons of St. George society recently started here, he taking a lively interest in it.

Merchants Luncheon.

From 11.30 until 2 o'clock and Lowenbrau at the Bank Exchange.

$3,000.00 GIVEN AWAY!

TO THE PURCHASERS OF LOTS AT

OAK BAY BEACH, THE COMING SUMMER RESORT OF VICTORIA.

A LIBERAL PROPOSITION. Investors can secure a lot at a low figure, and a chance to secure one or more of Six Cash Premiums.

HOW WE PROPOSE TO DO IT.

We have arranged to handle the CHOICEST BEACH FRONTAGE adjacent to Victoria, viz.: a portion of the FULLER ESTATE, lying between the Driving Park and Oak Bay Beach. This Beach is most suitable for bathing, and is nearer to Victoria Centre than any other Beach suitable for a summer resort. Good roads now lead to the Beach, and wide avenues have been laid out through this property, thus making it the most desirable residential property adjacent to the city.

A HOTEL SITE has been reserved and plans prepared for a SPACIOUS SUMMER HOTEL.

THE ELECTRIC RAILWAY CARS now run within a short distance of this property, and arrangements will be made to extend the line to the Driving Park, which is opposite this property, and will bring it WITHIN TEN MINUTES' RIDE FROM THE POST OFFICE.

This property is specially adapted for residential purposes. It has a southern prospect, is in full view of the many Islands of the Gulf and the grand mountain scenery on the opposite shore of the Straits, including the lordly Mount Baker to the North-East. All steamers for Mainland, East Coast and Puget Sound pass in full view, and the surrounding landscape is one vision of loveliness.

Lots are BOUND TO INCREASE in value in any event, but with the improvements contemplated will without doubt have a rapid rise.

A GOOD INVESTMENT, outside of the fact that you have ONE CHANCE IN 25 of securing one of the Cash Premiums offered, the lots are being sold at such a low figure that it is also one of the best things offered investors at the present time.

LOTS WILL SELL QUICKLY, and if you desire one you should call at once and secure one. Termy easy.

For further particulars apply to $3,000.

We have arranged to give a half-dozen Cash Premiums for Competition among purchasers of lots, the drawing to take place when all lots have been disposed of, which will most likely be within 60 days.

Following are the amounts:

1ST PRIZE	$1,000
2ND "	750
3RD "	500
4TH "	350
5TH "	250
6TH "	150

Each lot purchased will entitle the buyer to a ticket, numbered, and the Drawing will be made under the supervision of a Committee of lot holders, to be selected by themselves, so that everything will be fair, square and above board.

HE SURPRISED ELIZA.

And After Doing It He Was Treated to a Little Surprise Himself.

John Roberts, of North East, is a farmer well enough to do, but he had always been eccentric about his clothes, writes a Salamanca correspondent of the New York Sun. Until a week or so ago he had not been known to buy a new suit of clothes for years. The ones he wore had been so often patched and repatched that no bit of the original warp and wool was visible. This personal slovenliness on the part of her husband was a source of constant annoyance to Mrs. Roberts, who is a woman of exceptional neatness. She long ago became so ashamed of his appearance that she would no longer accompany him to town to do her trading. This singular characteristic of the farmer was not owing to penuriousness, for he is a liberal man in all his dealings.

A few days ago he went to town to do a little trading, and, to the utter astonishment of the town, he purchased a new suit of clothes for himself. His new clothes were done up in a package, and he placed the package on the wagon seat beside him when he started home that night. It was a dark night. Farmer Roberts had got half way home when a brilliant idea struck him. He stopped his horse on a bridge where the road crosses the East branch.

"I'll do it, by gum!" he said. "I'll do it and su'prise Eliza!"

Thereupon the farmer rose up in his wagon and began to take off the patched and repatched clothes he had worn so long. As he removed a garment he tossed it into the creek until he had tossed them all in, and had nothing on but his shirt.

"Great apple sass!" he exclaimed. "But won't Eliza be su'prised!"

Then Farmer Roberts reached for the package that had his new clothes in. It wasn't on the seat. Farmer Roberts got down and reached under the seat. The package wasn't there. Then he felt all over the bottom of the wagon. The package wasn't any where on the bottom. Farmer Roberts rose up in the wagon and looked back along the pitch-dark road.

Then he climbed back in his seat, and away the horses went for home. The night was chilly, and there was three miles to go. When Farmer Roberts reached home and climbed out of his wagon he paused.

"The hull idee didn't work," said he "but I'll bet nine dollars that I su'prise Eliza!"

That he did no one doubts, but when he got up in the morning and went out to the barn clad in the hired man's overalls, and saw his package of new clothes hanging by its string on the brake handle at the side of the wagon, he was a little surprised himself.

MISSION BRIDGE OPENED.

Its Location and the Many Advantages That Will Result.

Saturday morning saw the formal opening of the bridge across the Fraser at Mission Junction. The ceremony took place in splendid weather and was attended by the chief officers of the Pacific division of the C.P.R., and the leading spirits of Vancouver.

Mission Junction where the new bridge is situated, is at the most southern point of the Canadian Pacific railway in British Columbia. The line of railway from there to the boundary will be about 10 miles long and will connect at Barkerville with the Bellingham Bay, the Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern, and later with the Great Northern railways. By this route the journey between Vancouver and Seattle will occupy only five hours, and passengers from Seattle for Victoria can reach there via this line as speedily as they can by the present direct steamship route. The trains between Vancouver and Seattle will make close connection at Mission Junction with the transcontinental trains both east and west and there will be through cars on each train between Vancouver and Seattle. The line will be open in about two months.

Being in the same longitude as Seattle the Mission branch with its connections will form the shortest possible route to the cities on Puget sound.

The Fraser river at the Mission is 60 feet deep at the time of the highest freshets in summer, with a rapid current. In winter it is 42 feet deep, with a tide of six feet. The bridge is a little more than 3000 feet long. There is a swing truss 240 feet long, affording an opening of 100 feet at each side for vessels to pass. Also eight fixed spans of 150 feet each, one span of 100 feet and 14,000 feet of trestle approach. The piers to the level of tide water consist of piles enclosed in cribs of timber which are filled with stone, rendering the whole a solid mass. From tide water upwards they are of square timber framed together. The bridge is 70 feet above the bed of the river, and as the piles are driven to depths of 20 feet or more, it stands nearly 100 feet above its foundations.

The work was commenced in March, 1889, but was stopped for some time, and had been fourteen months actually under construction.

As an instance of the magnificent timber which can be furnished by British Columbia, it may be stated that 50 of the sticks in the swing span are from 78 to 97 feet in length, and were cut by the Hastings saw mill of Vancouver. Many of the piles used were 85 feet in length.

After the ceremony the visitors sat down to luncheon with Mr. McGillivray presiding, and in due course the usual congratulatory speeches were made by Mayor Oppenheimer, Mr. Abbott, Mr. McGillivray, Mr. Cambie, Mr. Walkem and Mr. Smith.

COBLENTZ WAS TOO SHARP.

A short time ago a well-known customs house officer who has made himself prominent by making many difficult seizures, was going to Seattle from Port Townsend on one of the Victoria boats. He apparently appeared as a stranger and greenhorn in the eyes of a couple of the confidence men but nevertheless was shrewd enough for a dozen of such gamblers. Their first thought was to induce him to join them in a game of poker.

This customs house officer, who was none other than J. H. Coblentz, had heard of their doings and furthermore their faces were to him very familiar having come in contact with them so often. The men sized up their victim and he noticing this did not for a moment think that they would approach him, but was very anxious for them to spring one of their thieving propositions, as he was fully prepared to show them that he was no hoosier. Finally they approached the doughty customs officials, and after engaging in a short and friendly conversation, they suggested that a game of poker would be a good thing to pass the time with, and tried to persuade him to join them.

The invitation was accepted and the three men took up their quarters in one of the small rooms on the vessel. They were badly deceived in their man before the game was finished.

It happened as usual, that one of the confidence men was dealer, and so slyly did he perform his work that his movements could not be detected. Coblentz was given a jack full, and immediately became convinced that they were the men he had suspected. The dealer gave his partner four kings, and the betting then began. Dollar after dollar was placed on the table, and finally when the money in the pot amounted to about $30, Coblentz called his man. The confidence man exclaimed that he had four kings. Coblentz replied that they were no good as he held four aces. As quick as a flash he threw down his cards, whipped out his favorite old partner, a six shooter, and scraped in the pot. The rogues for a few minutes were dumbfounded and stared in amazement at the man whom they took for a greenhorn. They offered no resistance, having gained a knowledge of the man they contemplated fleecing. He then waltzed them up to the bar, and after breaking the necks off of a couple of bottles, left them standing there thinking over their experience.

INTERIOR INTELLIGENCE.

Collated From the Inland Press—Cold Weather in the Mountain District.

From the Sentinel.

Rafael's pack train pulled out of Ashcroft this week with 29 loaded packs for Dog creek.

The past week has been the coldest of the season. The weather prophets predict that the cold snap won't remain long.

On Sunday last, Mr. O. Evans had delivered to him 740 head of sheep at Ashcroft. They were shipped here direct from Oregon.

For the past week the ice has been of sufficient thickness on the South Thompson to permit of skating. It is not, however, quite safe in many places.

The Rev. Mr. Gordon, Banff, on last Sabbath, conducted the opening services of the neat little Presbyterian church at Beaver, which will accommodate 150 worshippers.

About half past six on Tuesday morning, fire was discovered in the outhouse at the rear of Mr. H. Whittaker's dwelling on Church street and before it was got under control did about $250 damage.

It is understood that Mr. Saucier has resolved upon forming a joint stock company to work and operate the electric light plant which he has established in town, and that next week incorporation will be applied for. This is a chance to invest in what is bound to prove a profitable business.

Good marketable ice is being cut in considerable quantities at Griffin Lake. Although the North Thompson is frozen over at Kamloops, the ice is not of sufficient thickness to make the cutting of it a source of profit. The anticipated ice famine has been averted, and consumers of the cooling necessary are beginning to feel easier.

A correspondent at Okanagon writes under date January 29. The weather continues very mild and fine. Many are looking for snow so as to be able to haul freight, fencing, etc. Cattle are doing well. Capt J. B. Williams died on Jan. 24. He was at one time a Granite Creek miner. An occasional land hunter looks up our fine ranching properties.

The thermometer during the past week registered as low as 29° below zero at Donald, the first experience of what might be considered cold weather during the present winter, and the probability of an ice famine, which, during the early part of the season gave rise to all sorts of impossible suggestions for securing a supply of this very necessary article for summer use from the Glazier and other equally convenient localities, is disappearing at a proportionate rate.

Wm. Godwin was charged before I. Lehman, J. P. at Ashcroft with having sold a horse and saddle which he had hired from an Indian in Nicola for two weeks. Godwin, it appears, came to these parts with the horse and saddle which he sold for a trifle and then went to Victoria. He came back again, and fearing detection, went up the Cariboo road, where he fancied he would be safe. The Indian traced him up and finally had him arrested. He was committed to stand his trial at the assize.

From the Kootenay Star.]

Thermometers registered several degrees below zero on Sunday morning.

There is no snow from Shuswap to a considerable distance west of Kamloops.

During the past week shovelling snow has been a favorite pastime. A foot and a half on the level is the record for the week.

The C.P.R. rotary snowplow C, stationed at Revelstoke, has not been required on the road this season yet. The wig snow plow was out on Saturday.

Many of our readers will regret to hear of the death of Mr. George Herb, secretary of the Columbia Mining Company, of Ainsworth, which sad event occurred at his former home, Medical Lake, Wash., on January 7th.

The amount of damages awarded Frederick J. Brady, of Windmere, by the Exchequer Court, as damages from the Dominion Government for injuries sustained by him at Banff in September, 1888, has been fixed at $25,000 and costs.

A number of energetic Albertans will make application to Parliament to incorporate a company for the purpose of constructing an irrigation canal in the territory. If a system of irrigation can be successfully carried on through the dry portion of Alberta, it will undoubtedly prove of great value to the country.

If Your House is on Fire

You put water on the burning timbers, not on the smoke. And if you have catarrh you should attack the disease in the blood, not in your nose. Remove the impure cause, and the local effect subsides. To do this, take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great purifier, which radically and permanently cures catarrh. It also strengthens the nerves. Be sure to get only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Beacon Hill Park Addition to Victoria

ATTENTION, INVESTORS AND HOME-SEEKERS

Where can you place your money to better advantage than here? Beacon Hill Park Addition is acknowledged to be the most delightful and accessible location for a home now offered. It is but ten minutes' from the Post Office and fifteen minutes' walk from street car on a good 60-foot road. The elevation commands a magnificent view of Mount Baker, the Islands and Straits. The beautiful suburbs of this well-known estate as well as our city, the close proximity to the business centre, places it foremost among suburban sub-divisions. The land has been under cultivation for the last five years, and is fine for gardening purposes. The whole forty acres is plotted out into 218 lots, and will be sold at as low a price as surrounding property can be bought by the acre. It is divided into lots varying in size from 50x120 to 50x190, some few being shallower with larger frontage, uniformity of size being impossible owing to the beautiful design of laying out the whole. Prices $450 to $525, according to location and size. Terms: $50 down and $20 every three months, with 5 per cent. interest, until paid off. Do not lose this opportunity, but come on time, as already 180 lots have been sold in 14 days. To persons desirous of investing small amounts this will afford an opportunity seldom offered. A personal visit to this property will prove to you all the good points that are claimed for it. For further particulars call on feb3-2w

CITY AND PROVINCIAL.

TO MAKE BETTER STREETS.

Ald. A. J. Smith Thinks a Fund Should be Raised for the Purpose.

The by-law to be put forward on Wednesday evening by Ald. Smith providing for a loan of $110,000 for streets and sidewalks is the outcome of serious thought on that gentleman's part. He considered that a fund to be used solely for streets was necessary as so many new ones will be taken in by the extension of the city limits. In all the surburban streets work is required to be done. The result of a personal inspection satisfied the chairman of the street committee, Ald. A. J. Smith, that an extensive loan was required, and he accordingly placed his notice on the bulletin board.

In addition to the $100,000 required for streets, he will ask for $10,000 more to be used as a fund to assist those property holders who may desire to put down permanent sidewalks. The asphalt sidewalk is becoming more and more popular, and no doubt a good many yards will be laid next summer in front of the new blocks which are to be built. The fund of $10,000 is to be used in paying a subsidy to those who go to the expense of laying such walks. As the by-law is one which will benefit all parts of the city, but more particularly the suburbs, it will in all probability receive the hearty support of the rate payers.

COMING EVENTS.

Concerts and Dances to be Held Shortly in This City.

The conversazionne to be held in the school room of the R. E. church this evening promises to be just as enjoyable as those that have been held there formerly. A splendid programme has been prepared and the ladies and gentlemen who are to take part are all well-known vocalists.

The Married Ladies Club hold their closing dance, until after lent, in Philharmonic hall to-morrow evening.

More than usual interest is being taken in the grand charity concert to be given in the Victoria theatre on Tuesday evening, Feb. 17. Mrs. W. W. Clarke who arranged for the concert has shown good judgment in selecting those who are to take part in the programme, all well-known vocalists who have lime and again delighted Victoria audiences.

On Thursday evening, Feb. 19th, the members of the North and South Saanich agricultural society will hold a grand ball at their hall. A large number of Victorians have already signified their intention of attending and they are assured of having a good time.

The congregation of St. Saviour's church will hold a concert in Victoria West hall this evening in aid of the building fund. A number of Victoria vocalists will take part and a first class entertainment may be expected.

WAGNER'S LOHENGRIN.

An Opera of Wierd, Fantastic Attractiveness---The Coming School.

It is not necessary to repeat here the story on which this opera is outlined; most people who have read to any extent will be familiar with it, and those who have not seen it elsewhere, but who attended Saturday night's performance, will have seen a good condensation of it in the libretto of the opera. It was interpreted with no slight ability and effect, while musically it brought out all the best capabilities of the Juch Opera Company and gave them scope to far outshine all their previous efforts. Wagner's music is just about to make a special effect in the musical world, in fact it is beginning "to take," and accordingly to be appreciated. In that case no doubt, an opera like "Lohengrin" will bear considerable remodelling; a little pruning here and some few additions there, some of the long and heavy speeches curtailed, and a few of those charmingly pretty, or pathetic passages made brighter by giving the audience a longer opportunity of judging of their beauty. Then there are a few incongruities that even now might be smoothed away. For instance a plotting man and woman, whose infamy and lying have been exposed, should not, and would not in real life, be allowed to intrude into a kingly court in defiance of all law and authority. The safety of the story does not demand it. Then again a king is allowed to stand by unheeded while two of his subjects seemingly claiming his protection, turn their backs upon him and arrange their own affairs in long speeches. These are shortcomings in the work itself, not in the performers, for the latter shewed themselves in a grander light than even was expected of them. Miss Juch took hold of her part as Elsa, and blended with it that poetry and innocency which are so much a portion of her nature. In her dramatic poses she was natural and lovely; absolutely free from exaggerated gesture or over acted vehemence. In both joy and sorrow she was alike temperate, the beautiful timbre of her voice making either emotion divine and pure. In Mr. Charles Hedmondt, Elsa had a model "Lohengrin," fair, manly and handsome; of noble mien, and possessing a rich tenor voice which blended softly with hers. Miss Janowskowsky had a great deal to do in the character of Ortrud, and she did that great deal well, although this is one of the parts that would not suffer by a little curtailment. Mr. Vetta as King, was kingly, that bass voice of his adding regal authority to his commands. Taken as a whole the opera deserved the crowded and and intelligent audience it drew; it showed the performers to be true musicians, for none other could sing to such music, which was at times ghostly in its weirdness rising from a peculiarly sad moan to an outburst of the fiercest passion and madness; swelling sometimes from a sigh into a storm of wildest fury. Here it was that the orchestra shone.

The China Steamer.

The steamship Parthia, Captain Panton, from China and Japan, arrived at Vancouver before four o'clock Saturday. She left Yokohama on January 20th and has thus made the trip in 18 days. She experienced exceedingly rough weather, having been obliged to hove to for over thirty hours. There were six saloon passengers: The Rev. H. M. Hawkes, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Fraser, and Mr. W. Wiseman for Liverpool, Eng; and Miss Gregory, Capt. Hyde Baker, and Mr. W. A. Foster for Vancouver. She also brought two second cabin passengers, Mr. J. Simpson and Mr. O. Dawson, and 84 Chinese, and 33 Japanese. She brought 2,243 tons of cargo, which was composed principally of tea, silk and rice.

$20,000 Damages.

Messrs. Irving and Bodwell, solicitors for Galbraith, Pembroke & Co., owners of the ship Eton, which was run into by the steamer City of Puebla in Nanaimo harbor some time ago, have issued a writ against the owners of the Puebla for $20,000 damages. A warrant was issued for the Puebla, but she was released on $20,000 bonds. Mr. Helmcken, of Drake, Jackson & Helmcken, represent the Pacific Coast Steamship company. The case will come up in a few days.

Debating Society.

At the regular meeting of the Victoria Debating society held last Saturday evening the subject discussed was: "Resolved that morality increases with civilization." Both sides were about equally supported in point of numbers and the question ably and thoughtfully dealt with, the vote showing a small majortty for the affirmative. Subject for next meeting will be "The moral influence of the stage," after which the society will be asked to consider the formation of a mock parliament.

Eggs is Eggs.

The Victorian hen seems to be striving to excel herself in the matter of producing large eggs, and stories of leviathan hen fruit have been in order lately. Perhaps the largest specimen is one contributed by a Dorking owned by Mr. R. S. Hale of N. Chatham street. This particular egg weighed four ounces, and was eight inches in circumference. If this sort of thing is persisted in a new style of egg cup will need to be made to meet the large size in eggs now becoming fashionable.

Mothers!

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mothers' friend. 35 doses, 35 cents.

A Strange Case

A child, of French Canadian parents died at Vancouver last week without having medical attendance. No certificate of death could be got, and an inquest was deemed necessary. The evidence showed that the parents had been careful enough of the child, but did not think a medical man's attendance necessary. To the Crown the father stated that a Montreal doctor had told him that, for hereditary reasons, all his children would die of catarrhal troubles; consequently efforts to save its life he considered futile. The man has been married twice, and is the father of 27 children, the last nine of whom have died. The verdict was death from bronchitis.

"The Jersey Lily."

Is what Millais christened his famous portrait of that celebrated woman who since became familiarly known to the public by that expressive and appropriate name. In turn she has coupled her fame with that of the most celebrated toilette article in existence, as witness what she says:—

ANGLESEA COTTAGE, L.B., July 2

Gentlemen,—Altho' it is very unusual for me to use any lotions or w[illegible]s, still, in answer to your request [illegible] have tried Wisdom's Violet Cream [illegible] Robertine. The former I consider especially efficacious in cases of roughness of the skin, and I have been using it every day for the last fortnight. I have found the Robertine an excellent preparation in cases of tan, sunburn, etc., caused by exposure to March winds and a July sky.

Yours faithfully,
LILLIE LANGTRY.

Two Slight Fires.

An alarm from box 34 called out the department about 11 o'clock Saturday night. The cause was an incendiary fire started in a vacant house on Belcher street, owned by Mrs. P. Englehardt, but which was put out by a neighbor, the extinguishers of No. 1 company, no hose being laid. An investigation after the fire was out showed that a very deliberate attempt to destroy the house had been made, as three rooms were saturated with kerosene oil, which had been thrown on the walls and over the floor. A heap of kindlings had then been placed in one of the rooms and lighted. Had it not been for prompt work the house must have been burned, as it is the damage by fire will not exceed $10. The damage by the oil will be greater, as the wall will need repapering.

At half past two Sunday morning a fire in the rear of a Chinese wash house next to Weiler's factory, on Humboldt street, called out the firemen. The shed blazed fiercely for a few moments, and there was danger of the factory dry house getting alight, but a stream from No. 3 soon put a quencher on the fire with a very small loss, the building burnt being merely a rough shed of little value.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

That Tired Feeling

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." ED. JENKINS, Mt. Savage, Md.

Fagged Out

"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BEGOLE, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Worn Out

"Hood's Sarsaparilla restored me to good health. Indeed, I might say truthfully it saved my life. To one feeling tired and worn out I would earnestly recommend a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. FRED MOSHER, 90 Brooks Street, East Boston, Mass.

COAL

(FORMERLY THE VANCOUVER COAL CO.),

ARE THE LARGEST COAL PRODUCERS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

THE NANAIMO COAL (Used principally for Gas and Domestic Purposes).

THE SOUTH FIELD COAL (Steam Fuel).

THE NEW WELLINGTON COAL

(House and Steam Coal are mined by this Company only.)

THE "NANAIMO" COAL gives a large percentage of Gas, a high Illuminating Power, unequalled by any other Bituminous Gas Coal in the world, and a superior quality of Coke.

THE "SOUTH FIELD" COAL is now used by all the Leading Steamship Lines on the Pacific.

THE "NEW WELLINGTON" COAL, which was introduced early in the present year, has already become a favorite fuel for domestic purposes. It is a clean, hard coal, makes a bright and cheerful fire, and its lasting qualities make it the most economical fuel in the market.

The several Mines of the Company are connected with their Wharves at Nanaimo and Departure Bay, where ships of the largest tonnage are loaded at all states of the tide. Special dispatch is given to Mail and Ocean steamers.

WHARF AND WAVE.

Jottings of Interest to Marine Men Concisely Compiled.

The sealer Walter L. Rich has had a new mainmast fitted.

Sealer Ariel left for Clayoquot sound to-day, where she will get her crew of Indians.

The bark Scottish Bard will come into the inner harbor in a day or two, after she discharges about 50 tons of powder at the naval magazine.

Steamer Etta White, Capt. Smith, came in last night from Moodyville with a load of lumber for the outer wharf. She left again for Vancouver this afternoon.

The Pacific Coast Steamship Company is reported to have discovered that a long existing scheme for emolument has been going on on the dock in San Francisco, in settling with the longshoremen and stevedores. These laborers work by the hour, and present tags with their working hours on them to the cashier. The joker is said to consist in the person intrusted with paying off adding an hour or two to each man's time, changing the tag to the increased amount and pocketing the difference between the laborer's just due and the inflation.

Lecture This Evening.

Rev. Mr. Lanceley, of Toronto, preached an eloquent sermon in the Pandora street Methodist church last evening. He is one of the most eloquent preachers in the Dominion, and those who attend his lecture on "Ourselves and Others" in the Sunday school room this evening will hear something instructive.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

Hog Cholera.

Mr. Blanchard, Dominion Inspector under the Animals Contagious Diseases Act, paid a quiet visit to Wellington Friday to investigate the reported cases of hog cholera in that settlement. He found that a great many hogs had died from the disease, but only a few are at present apparently affected. He made an inspection around Wellington, and also as far as Nanoose. At the latter place there is no indication of the disease. Mr. Blanchard has deemed it in the public interest that all hogs should be "coralled" for the present.

New Residences.

Contractors and builders are being kept busier this year than ever before in the history of the city and although still early a large number of houses are being built. Business blocks are also being pushed skyward and besides the large number already mentioned, others are in contemplation, to be built at an early date. Among the new houses reported to Inspector Northcott last week are:

R H Jameson,	2	story	Superior St.	$1000
Jno Jardine	Two 2	"	Phœnix "	1000
———	Two 2	"	S. Turner "	2500
———	Two 1	"	Toronto "	—
J Coolie	Shop	"	Kingston "	3000
———	Two 1	"	Rithet "	—
———	2	"	Fort "	—

To Build For Themselves.

Mr. Tully Boyce, president of the M. & M. L. P. A., has stated, says the Free Press, that it is the intention of the association to erect a large building on one of the most conspicuous sites in Nanaimo. Plans will shortly be called for, and the work commenced during the coming summer. The new building promises to be larger than any building at present standing in the city. The dimensions have not been decided on and will not therefore be known until the plans have been submitted. The material to be used will be brick, and if possible, it will be obtained in the city, as the association are determined if possible, that everything connected with the erection of the building shall be done by local enterprise.

Not Victorians.

Churchgoers were disturbed yesterday by a sight not often seen in Victoria's streets. At about 11 o'clock two young men, both of whom were under the influence of liquor, were near the corner of Montreal and Kingston streets, when one of them, who was evidently the most drunken of the two, utterly collapsed and could proceed no further. His companion tried to drag the prostrate one along, and in doing so nearly denuded him of clothing. The two men were not Victorians but belonged to one of the steamers at the outer wharf. Fortunately for the inebriates no police officers were about at the time, or else the city revenues might have been enhanced by a couple of well developed fines.

For San Francisco.

The steamer City of Puebla left for San Francisco yesterday morning with the following passengers: Mrs. F. Barnard, S. F. Johnson, M. J. Johnson, Miss Galloway, Miss L. A. Cosgrove, H. W. Windle and F. Stephenson.

Repairing of Jewellery.

Is a special branch in my factory, work is well executed, charges are low. I solicit from you a trial to test my ability to give satisfaction. A. A. Clayton, 47 Government street, opposite Bank of B. C., Victoria.

Special Notice.

Ladies are invited to inspect the latest novelties in black and colored jackets just received. Also a few elegant wraps and ulsters suitable for the present and spring seasons, including the 42nd Lorne and Fife tartans. All marked at low prices to insure a clearance.

Final Meeting.

The final meeting for the organization of the trade and labor club will be held in the council chambers, City hall on Thursday evening. Workingmen are taking a great interest in Mr. Ireland's scheme and they will all be present. An invitation is extended to business men to be present.

More Brick Blocks.

The old buildings on Fort street just below the Philharmonic Hall on Mr. A. R. Milnie's property are being torn down to make room for a handsome brick block. Mr. Milni has not decided upon the plans yet, but a four story building will likely be erected. Mr. Milne's also intends to build a brick block on Johnson street on the vacant lot adjoining Mr. Bosse's buildings.

The City Had to do It.

The Government having proved deaf to the continued representations made as to the dangerous, as well as disgraceful state of Point Ellice bridge, sanitary officer Bailey, who has a horror of dirty streets, set some of his men to work there, with the result that there is now a first class passage across. The liquid mud has been cleared away to be replaced by macadam. Drivers are thankful to the city for going out of its way to do a good turn.

Not Serious.

Clarence O'Brien, a butcher working for the B. C. Market, was thrown from his horse at the corner of Second and Bay streets, Work estate, yesterday noon, and from appearances was supposed to be seriously injured. Dr. E. Hall was soon on the spot and had the wounded man taken to the hospital, where under the care of Dr. Richardson he was soon brought to and is now able to be around, but is not so lively as before the accident.

The Small Boy's Delight.

The small boy now haunts Chinatown, and after a volley of firecrackers have been let off makes a charge to secure unexploded ones with which he straightway proceeds to render unbearable the lives of such dogs and cats as he can get near to. If by chance he can explode one of the crackers under a dog or cat his joy is complete. Next to that consummation of youthful desires is the giving of a bad fright to an elder person with one of the little spiteful crackers.

Death of a Sealing Captain.

Thi morning Captain Arthur E. Morgan, of the sealing schooner Pathfinder, died at the Jubilee hospital after a short but severe attack of typhoid fever. The deceased was one of the most popular captains of the fleet, being a very genial and open hearted man, and although young he had the fullest confidence of his employers, Messrs. Carne & Munsie. The deceased was a native of Yarmouth, N. S., and had been on the coast for the past two years engaged in the sealing business, and was twenty-nine years of age. He leaves a widowed mother in the east who will feel his loss very severely. To-day the flags of the sealers and shipyards floated at half-mast as a mark of respect to his memory. The funeral will take place at two o'clock to-morrow afternoon from Hayward's undertaking rooms, and at 2:30 from the Calvary Baptist church. Friends are invited to attend.

To Maintain Its Title.

The palace drug store (Cochrane & Munn's) is, the proprietors are determined, to maintain its title against all comers. It is now in the hands of Mr. O. F. Chapman, and will be left by that artist in a style that he knows well how to impart. He is going to finish the ceiling in oil colors laid on in original designs of fresco and ornamental floral work of a very chaste nature. In about two weeks this store will be the handsomest in the city.

TO DEPOSITORS

The British Columbia Land & Investment Agency, Ld.

(SUCCESSORS TO ALLSOP & MASON.)

In view of the low rate of interest given by the Dominion Savings Bank Department, and the restrictions imposed as to the amount to be deposited, this Company is now prepared to receive money on deposit, in large or small amounts, at interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum, and on favorable terms as to notice, etc.

The offices of the Company have been removed to 40 Government street, the premises lately occupied by the Telegraph Company.

Dec. 30.

VERNON, VERNON

THE TERMINUS OF THE
SHUSWAP & OKANAGAN RAILWAY
Situated in the Heart of the Famous Okanagan Valley.

THE RAILWAY CENTRE OF THE INTERIOR

The Shuswap & Okanagan Railway is now under construction, and will be completed and in Operation to Vernon next Summer, 1891.

The Okanagan & Kootenay Railway Co. obtained a charter (with land grants of 20,000 acres per mile) to construct a railway from Vernon to Sproat's Landing, via the Coldstream Valley and Cherry Creek Mines.

A charter will be applied for at the next session of the Local Legislature to construct a Railway from Vernon south to the International Boundary, to connect with the American railway system.

This is a great chance to make money, as Vernon, being in the heart of the most extensive agricultural district in the Province, will undoubtedly become a large and flourishing city.

Arrangements have been completed with responsible parties for publishing a good weekly paper at Vernon, to commence business early in the new year. This paper will be circulated by the company in all parts of the world.

A Large Hotel will be erected early next spring, and plans for same are now ready.

PLANS OF TOWN-SITE ARE NOW IN ALL REAL ESTATE OFFICES

A large number of lots have already been sold, and most of those will have buildings erected on them early next year.
Special Inducements are offered to builders. See price list. Free sites will be given to parties establishing industries.
Financial assistance will also be given to responsible parties engaging in legitimate enterprises.

ADVANCE IN PRICES.

The Company will advance prices of all central lots early next month. Intending purchasers should not delay selecting lots now in order to obtain the benefit of this advance.

Vernon is situated in a pass commanding and making tributary to it the whole of the famous Okanagan Valley and its tributary valleys, the grazing country of the Lower Nicola, the mining camps of Rock Creek, Granite Creek, Keremeos, Okanagan and Similkameen Mountain, the placer diggings of Cherry Creek and Siwash Creek. It is impossible to get to any of the above places without first going through Vernon.

The opening of the Shuswap & Okanagan Railway next summer will flood this favored country with land and mining prospectors, &c., and will give a great impetus to the farming, fruit growing, grazing and mining industries. Several important industries are projected and will likely be started in Vernon next year.

The best advice we can give intending purchasers is to go and see for yourself. The C.P.R. to Sicamous, Stage from Sicamous to Vernon. Leave Vancouver on Mondays or Fridays, arrive Vernon Tuesday or Friday evening.
